

PROPOSED PROGRAM

Based upon the requirements of a comprehensive community approach for the improvement of Thomasville's neighborhoods, the following programs are recommended. It is believed that these programs, if implemented (or strengthened as the case may be) would give Thomasville a strong, workable program for community improvement when viewed in conjunction with the programs now in action.

Public Education in Community Living

Since a community is the sum total of the actions of the individuals of which it is composed, past, present and future, it is essential that each individual assume and execute his proper responsibilities as a part of the community. This, however, can only be accomplished by each individual having a knowledge and understanding of the role he should play in making the community a better place in which to live. In view of this it is recommended that a coordinated education and public relations program be implemented with the two-fold objective of acquainting all present and future citizens with the goals of the community and of creating an atmosphere conducive to the participation of all citizens in the
